OUR ANNUAL MICC MEN'S RETREAT

BURG WERNFELS
NEAR NÜRNBERG
MARCH 19-21, 2010

A WEEKEND THAT MATTERS

Every man alive wants to make his life matter. But matter for what? Or for whom? Men naturally seek for success and significance in all kinds of situations—through our careers, investments, athletic competition, possessions, acquisitions and adventures.

Christ does call us as men to a life of change, adventure, risk and significance. And He offers us the opportunity to make a difference—not only in our lifetimes, but for the next generations, and for all eternity as well!

In order to fulfill our calling we will need to draw near to him as the source of our strength, and draw near to other men who can encourage us and strongly enter the battle with us—a battle against sin in the flesh, the allure of the world, and the snares of the devil.

Often our best intentions to fulfill God's calling on our lives fall way short because we get distracted, we stumble on the way, or simply that we don't quite know what to do or how to do it. We need some strong examples and models to imitate. We need Jesus, and Jesus has given us one another as fellow soldiers.

If you want to discover some pathways to real, lasting change—how to draw near to Christ as a robust, strong man; how to love Jesus in a manly way that doesn't seem like he's your lifelong prom date; if you want to seize the opportunity to live life as a growing Christian man and see your life on earth have eternal impact—in church, friends, family, then join in the MICC Men's Retreat.

There will be times for conversation around the table with friends, perhaps a mountain hike, and also just time to relax—a great way to build strong friendships together.

SPEAKER: JOHN WALDROP

Originally from the US, John and his family have lived overseas since 1996. Before serving at the International Church of Prague, John was the founding pastor of Hope Church in Donetsk, Ukraine, and taught in a Christian university there as well.

Before moving to Europe, the Waldrops lived in Wheaton, Illinois, where John served in local church ministry, and his wife, Esther did freelance editorial work. John received an M.Div. in missions from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School, and a B.A. in history from Wheaton College.

The Waldrops have five children: Wendy (16), Johnny (13), Jackson (11), Hope (9), and Mollie (7). John and Esther both love good books, good movies, and good coffee! They are missionaries with WorldVenture, based in Colorado, and also part of the ICC-Eurasia Pastors' Network.

In 2007, John was our speaker for the Teisendorf retreat, and we're delighted he can join us again this year for our men's retreat. He'll also bring along some men from Prague to enrich our fellowship together.

for more info on John, you can visit www.internationalchurchofprague.cz

WHAT WILL WE DO?

During the retreat we'll have time to meet with God and with one another. The Word of God is a hammer to break our resistance, rebellion and excuses; it's a light for our path, it's a nourishing refreshment for our souls, it transforms and renews our minds. It's a choice tool in the Lord's hands to transform us to be like Jesus. So it's essential that we soak ourselves in God's Word as we meet. Times to hear from John will be mixed with small groups and the offering of our songs and prayers to God in worship. We'll also have times for relaxation, exploration and fun together. Let's pursue and practice a genuine and manly godliness.
