

A GREEN GOLDEN AGE?

EXPLORING MYTHS OF AN ENVIRONMENTAL PAST

A PUBLIC TALK WITH Q&A BY
PROF. IAIN PROVAN

WHEN

Fri 1st March
7:00 - 9:00 p.m.

WHERE

Hofbräukeller München
Innere Wiener Straße 19, 81667 Munich

The myth of the "dark green golden age" claims that the development of civilization and organized religion ripped society from a previously deep communion with nature. This idea has been very influential, perhaps particularly in European culture. Iain Provan has responded to it, and related claims, in his book "Convenient Myths" published by Baylor University Press in 2013.

CONTACT

godinthepubmunich@gmail.com

<https://www.facebook.com/events/321338058726912/>

HOSTED BY

Munich International Community Church [MICC]
Christian Academics Munich [CAM]

Free entry

No registration required

Menu of food and drink available to purchase from the Hofbräukeller

All questions and viewpoints are welcome!

SPEAKER

Iain Provan is a Professor of Biblical Studies at Regent College, Canada. He received his MA in Mediaeval History and Archaeology from Glasgow, his PhD from Cambridge, and is the author of numerous books.